

The following key reforms are now permanent

★ The Exhibitors' Bill of Rights

Show managers and exhibitors can perform their own work in any size booth, using their own ladders or hand tools, cordless tools, power tools and other tools designated by the MPEA.

★ Expanded Straight-Time

Straight-time hours are expanded on Monday-Friday from 6 a.m. – 10 p.m. Carpenters' straight-time hours are from 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. on Monday-Friday and extend until 8:30 p.m. on break of show. On Saturdays a more flexible schedule reduces double-time. Additionally, provisions to roll back double-time pay applies to the following four weekday holidays: Columbus Day, Veterans Day, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and Presidents Day.

★ Personal Vehicles

Auto Small Utility Vehicles (ASUV) or Personally Operated Vehicle Provisions. Exhibitors can operate, load and unload their own vehicles at McCormick Place docks and designated loading areas.

★ Crew Size Reductions

Work at McCormick Place is conducted by 2-person rather than 3-person crews required prior to the reforms.

★ McCormick Place boasts the most exhibit and meeting room space in the Western Hemisphere. We can handle any event, big or small.

Previous cost-saving reforms remain in effect

★ Electrical Services

Show organizers may select an electrical provider of their choice from an approved vendor list.

★ Food Service Pricing

SAVOR, the new food service company, offers both concessions and catering at cost for show organizers, exhibitors and attendees.

★ Hotel Expansion & Renovation

The Hyatt Regency Hotel McCormick Place will add a new 461-room guest tower plus renovation of its existing 800 room hotel and adjacent conference center. Completion is expected in 2013.

★ Free Wi-Fi

McCormick Place is the largest convention center in the U.S. to provide free Wi-Fi throughout the facility, including all common hallways, exhibit halls and meeting rooms.

★ Lower Parking Rates

The parking rate in the surface lot (Lot B) of McCormick Place has been reduced from $19 to $14.

★ Private Management

McCormick Place is now operated by SMG, the nation's leading provider of private management services.
